

West Virginia Good Samaritan

W.Va. Code 55-7-15

Medical and Non-Medical Immunity:

Any person, whether or not trained to practice medicine, who renders emergency care at the scene of an accident or to a victim of a crime shall not be liable for any civil damages as a result of rendering such emergency care. This immunity will be granted as long as the care is rendered in good faith and without remuneration.